3. In the case of advances made to daily rated staff such advances may be treated as payment of wages made in advance for their service rendered during the month following the payment of advance.

4. The payment of advance is admissible to the monthly rated employees of Industrial Concerns as in the case of Railway employees.

5. This advance of one month's pay is also admissible to the temporary staff appointed for definite period on a fixed or graded pay provided the Drawing Officers can recover the advance in not more than 6 months after the payment of advance. But temporary staff entertained against leave vacancies are not entitled to the advance if they do not satisfy the above condition.

6. In the case of the staff whose pay is chargeable to Work Establishment the advance is payable subject to the condition that the Drawing Officer is held responsible for the recovery.

7. Probationers who are drawing fixed rates of stipend are entitled to the advance if they are likely to be absorbed in regular vacancies and the recovery can be ensured.

8. In respect of daily rated employees, the advance to be paid should be on the basis of 26 days exclusive of overtime.

9. In the following cases the advances of one month's pay is not admissible:—

(a) Locally available candidates in superior service appointed prior and after 1st January 1947.

(b) The officials who died during August 1947 and who otherwise fulfil all other conditions.

(c) Retired employees re-employed in Government Service.

(d) The officials employed in the Local Bodies.

To

The Agents of the Public Branch.

Commission on Income Policies.

It is hereby intimated that all the agents of the Public Branch are allowed to canvass cases for the Income policy scheme and they are allowed a commission of 1 per cent of the purchase price.

The agents are therefore requested to take advantage of this facility and augment their earnings by procuring cases for the Income Policy Scheme. It may be noted that these policies give a better return than about 3 per cent and that they provide a convenient method of obtaining a periodical income.
